Mrs. William L. Martin

Miss Ophelia Oliver, daughter of John and Virginia Oliver, was born in Wood county, Virginia, March 15, 1852, and died at her home in Waverly, April 27, 1918. She came with her parents to Waverly when two years of age. On March 26, 1894, she was united in marriage to William L. Martin, who passed away just sixteen days before her death. No children were born of this union. She had never been very strong and had been in very poor health for several years. Immediately after the death of Mr. Martin, she suffered a breakdown and gradually became worse until death ended her sufferings at 3 o'clock Saturday morning.

Mrs. Martin was a good friend and neighbor and a devoted wife. At an early age she united with the Methodist church at Higginsville, but she had never transferred her membership to the church at this place.

She leaves to mourn her departure, three sisters, Mrs. G. B. Hall, Mrs. W. R. Mitchell and Mrs. Lee McGrew, and three brothers, James, John and Ben Oliver, who live near Malta Bend.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Ailor at the Methodist church, Sunday afternoon. Burial was in the Waverly cemetery.

Community Singing.

The people of Lexington are offered a fine opportunity to learn our National anthem and all other patriotic songs together with all of the "catchy" songs the boys are singing in the cantonments, on the march and on the battle front in France. The community singers met Tuesday night in the auditorium of the High School building and under the direction of Mr. B. M. Little, made a good beginning and enjoyed every minute of the time—it was really inspiring. About sixty were present. A song feast will be held each Tuesday night beginning at 7:30 o'clock, and everybody is urged to come and sing—get into the spirit of the times and help make the welkin ring—It's great!

How can you save wool?

"Economy in the consumption of all the things needed by the nation for the winning of the war—the releasing of labor and materials from the pursuits of peace to the business of war—these fundamental necessities of our war program must be understood by all our people if we are to put our whole strength behind our men in France."

(From a statement by the Secretary of the Treasury, published in the Chicago Tribune.)

SAVING wool is one of the things the country needs, and it's one of the things you can do. The best way to save wool is to stop wasting it; fabrics that don't give long wear are not economy; they're waste.

The economy is in the service that all-wool fabrics give; such clothes wear so much longer, and look so much better, that even at the higher price they cost less, and waste less.

That's why we sell all-wool clothes; that's why Hart Schaffner & Marx make them; such clothes save in service.
